

ABOUT JACK EASON

Jack Eason serves ministries and non profits throughout the United States and around the world sharing principles for fundraising, growth and development, board governance, and other areas of ministry leadership. He enjoys serving as one of the pastors at Cross Roads Baptist Church in the Upstate of South Carolina as well as the of Crossover CUPS Mission, a 501c3 nonprofit organization that has been privileged to serve the local Church and missions-related organizations around the world for 30 years. Through the ministry of Crossover, Jack's team led student camps on the East and West Coasts for many years. Jack also produced a nationally syndicated radio and television show aimed at students for over 15 years. Now the Crossover CUPS mission impacts the lives of families in the Dominican Republic and Malawi.

Jack is married to Lynette Eason (the real famous one in their family, an accomplished author) and is the father of Lauryn and Will. He and his family live in Simpsonville, SC. Jack loves Jesus, his family, sweet tea, and serving others. In the last 15 years, God has used him to raise tens of millions of dollars for organizations like Christian radio, children's homes, mission efforts, pregnancy centers, and more. Whether it be raising funds for your upcoming special event or facilitating a training for your Staff and Board of Directors, Jack Eason not only has a heart to serve... he has the experience to connect and impact your team. Simply put, Jack gets results for the groups he speaks for! Jack is passionate about helping people understand the impact we can have when we work TOGETHER. If your organization is looking for someone who is passionate about ministries that are making a difference, and who knows how to raise money without manipulation but through genuine appeal, then you should have Jack come in for your event.

OTHER MINISTRY DETAILS:

Jack has been serving in ministry leadership since 1989. He has served on church staff as a youth pastor, worship leader, associate pastor, and currently is planting a church.

Jack has spoken for many DiscipleNow weekends and student camps, including LifeWay's FUGE Camps, BEACHCamp, and State Youth Conferences. Additionally, Jack served in partnership with the North American Mission Board for seven years by helping produce the Kaleo Conference, an event aimed at helping students hear God's voice to ministry leadership. Having served as a student pastor for years and traveled in itinerant ministry for youth events around the country, Jack knows how to connect with students by being real, transparent, and honest — and by meeting them where they're at. He also speaks for DiscipleNow weekends, retreats, community outreach events, capital campaigns, special missions emphasis services, and conferences. He'd love to come be a part of your next event.
